It is nice weather. It's sunny and warm.
The nights are becoming cooler but the days are still warm.
It's about 27 degrees during the day and 23 degrees at night.

How do you relax in the evening?

I drink coffee and I read books in the evening.
I like drinking coffee and reading books because it makes me feel relaxed. I am very busy during the day, so it's important that I take some time to relax.

What's your favourite music?

I love classical music. My favourite musician is Beethoven. I like classical music because I feel relaxed when I listen to it. I listen to music on the radio and on the internet. I listen to music before sleeping.

Describe this picture.

In this picture I can see a boy surprising his mother. He has his hands over her eyes, so she cannot see the flowers he has. It might be mothers' day or her birthday. They look very happy.

Tell me about a time when you gave or received some flowers

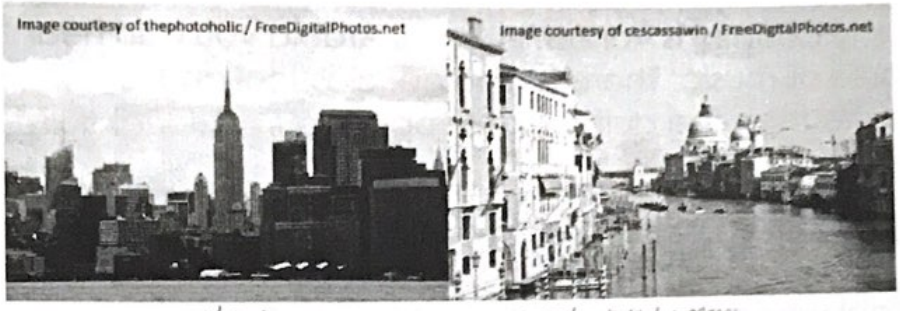

I gave my friend some flowers because she delivered a baby. She delivered a baby last year in Qatif, our city. I bought the flowers from a flower shop. I gave her pink flowers because she had a girl.

On what occasions in your country do people give flowers?

In Saudi Arabia people give flowers on many occasions. They give flowers when there is a birthday, a graduation, a wedding or when a baby is born. People give flowers to say congratulations or to say sorry or just to show their love.

Task 3

IELTS SY

modern + busy

romantic + beautiful + peaceful

Tell me what you see in the two pictures.

In the first picture I can see a modern city with many skyscrapers. I think it's New York because I can see the Chrysler building. It looks cloudy.
In the second picture I can see traditional buildings. I think it's Venice because I heard there is a river in Venice with the buildings next to the river. The weather is sunny in the second picture.

Which of these two places would you prefer for a holiday?

I would prefer to travel to New York for a holiday. I prefer New York because it's a big modern city. I heard there are many things to do there. There are also many things to see. The weather in New York is also nice.
I would prefer to travel to Venice for a holiday because it's a beautiful old city. I love old buildings and history. I think the city is quiet and relaxing. I like Italian food too. I heard the gelato and pizza there are amazing. The weather is very nice in November.

Task 4

Tell me about the music that comes from your country.

The music in my country is varied. In Saudi Arabia you can hear different genres of music. There is hip hop, classical and traditional music from the gulf. Most people like traditional gulf music.

How do you feel when you hear or listen to music?

2-Some of the music makes me feel relaxed, some of the music makes me want to sing and dance and some of the music makes me want to cry.

Why do some cultures produce so much music and others so little?

I think the reason why some cultures produce so much music is because some cultures love music more than others. Maybe it is also because the music is very important in their movies, like in Bollywood.

Task 1

What do you like doing in your free time?

There are many things I like doing in my free time. I like cooking and shopping. I like spending time with my friends and family. I like cooking for them and trying new recipes. Last week I made lasagne. It was very delicious.

Please tell me about your best friend

My best friend's name is _____. She worked with me at the Saudi Swiss Dental Clinic. She's 27 years old. She's very kind and nice. She helped me at work. I talk to her every day. We sometimes go shopping together.

Please tell me about the last thing you saw on television.

The last thing I saw on TV was a film. It was Taken Pt 3. I watched this movie this morning. I usually watch TV at night. It's a nice way to relax after working. I watch TV at home. We have cable TV. My favourite channel is MBC. I can watch many kinds of TV shows.

Describe this picture.

In this picture I can see a big yellow school bus. There are some children. They are about to take the bus home. I think they are going home because they are in a line. There are six students. They look young, maybe primary school. It's a sunny day.

How do children go to school in your country?

In my country some children go to school by bus, some children go by car (with their parents or with a private driver) and some children walk to school. If the children live near the school they walk. If the children live far away they go by car or bus.

Is it common to live far from school in your country? Why?

It is not common to live far from school in my country because there are many schools, so I don't have to travel far to find a school. There are private schools and public schools in my country. The schools are not far from the houses. Also the schools check where the parents live. The parents should live near the school.

Task 3

1-What do you see in the two pictures?

In the first picture I can see many people riding bicycles along a (city) street. I think it's a race or competition. There is a man taking photographs. He's very close to the riders. He's wearing a t-shirt, cap and jeans. In the background I can see many trees.

In the second picture I can see a group of people riding motorcycles. I think this is also a race. The racers are wearing sports clothes and a helmet. It looks dangerous. It looks more dangerous than the first sport. Because they can ride very fast, so they could have an accident.

2- What kinds of people play these two sports?

For the first sport, I think all kinds of people do this sport. Young people and old people. It is a sport that is not very dangerous. It is also not difficult to learn how to do.

For the second sport, I think only young people do this sport. Young people like dangerous sports. They think it is fun. They don't worry about getting an injury. They like the sound of the motorcycle and the smell of the petrol. They love the speed.

3- Which of these two sports is more difficult to do?

I think the dirt bike riding is more difficult to do because I don't know how to ride a motorbike, I think it's heavy and I think it's more dangerous because it's faster than a regular bike. You can get terrible injuries from an accident. But cycling is not so difficult and you can't go very fast on a bike.

Task 4

Tell me about a time when you visited a very tall building.

How did you feel about it?

Why do you think so many cities have tall buildings?

In 2012 I went to Dubai. I visited the Burj Khalifa. I was very excited to visit this amazing modern building. I loved seeing whole city from very high up. The buildings and the people from the Burj Khalifa looked very tiny. I took some photos with my family/friends. I took a selfie too and posted it on social media. I think so many cities have tall buildings because it makes the city look nice and modern. Cities do not have much space. Tall buildings give more space. More tourists may visit a city with tall buildings.

I think it's a special day. It might be his birthday or father's day. He looks very happy to get this surprise from his cute daughter.

Tell me about a time when you gave or received a gift.

Last year my sister gave me a gift. She gave me a diamond ring for Mother's Day. It was a very special gift. I was very happy to receive the ring. She also gave my mother a new phone. She brought cake to celebrate Mother's Day. My mother was very happy too.

Why is it important to give people gifts on special occasions?

It is very important to give gifts to build good relationships. People communicate with gift giving. People feel happy when they receive a nice gift. It's a nice way to make good memories on special occasions.

Task 3

IELTS SV

Describe these two pictures

In the first picture I can see a snowy mountain. There are some people. They are skiing on the mountain. Some animals live in the mountain. For example, pandas. It's a cold place. There's too much snow. Some people don't know how to ski. Some people can't climb the mountain.
In the second picture I can see a relaxing beach. I can't see any people but there are some chairs. I can see some coconut trees. The shade is covering the chairs. It's a beautiful, relaxing place.

Which of these two places would you prefer to go on holiday to? Why?

I would prefer to go on holiday to the second place because there are many things to do and it is relaxing. At the beach I can go swimming, I can sunbathe, I can read a book and listen to music. I can also get a massage and drink cold juice or have an ice cream. If I go to the beach I will take many photos and send them to my friends or upload them to Snapchat. The beach is a nice place to go on holiday or honeymoon.

Which of these two places do you think children would prefer? Why?

I think children would prefer to go to the first place because there are many things to do for them. They can play in the snow, they go skiing, and they can make a snowman and make and throw balls at their brothers and sisters. They can also ride the ski lift. Children like to play and drink hot chocolate. They can play on the mountain and drink hot chocolate there. They will be very happy here. You can make nice memories with your family here.

Task 4

IELTS SY

Tell me about a time when you got lost.

How did you feel about it?

What do people usually do when they get lost?

I remember a time when I got lost. It was 2 years ago. I was in London. I asked the taxi driver to take me to the London Bridge but he didn't know where to go. So I got out of the taxi too early. I couldn't find the location. I was really upset. I was worried and nervous. I didn't know where to go. But someone helped me. I asked them where I should go and they helped me. I saw the London Bridge, finally!

Usually when people get lost they ask someone else for help. Or nowadays many people use a map on their smartphones.

It was not a nice experience.

Next time I will focus on where I am.

Task 1

Tell me about yourself and what you are looking for in your new house.

My name is _____. I'm ___ years old. I'm a _____ _____. I'm married.
I have ____ children.
We are looking for a house with a big living room and a garden with a BBQ. I want a big bedroom with a large television. I want a small gym.

Please tell me why you are learning English.

I'm learning English because I want to improve in English. It's very important for my work. It's also helpful for when I travel. I need to know how to read the machines at work too.

Describe the picture

In this picture I can see a large woman. She's eating fast food at a table. She has a hot dog, some burgers, some French fries and some cola. She has short dark straight hair. She's wearing a blue t-shirt. She looks happy.

What kinds of food are not good for our health?

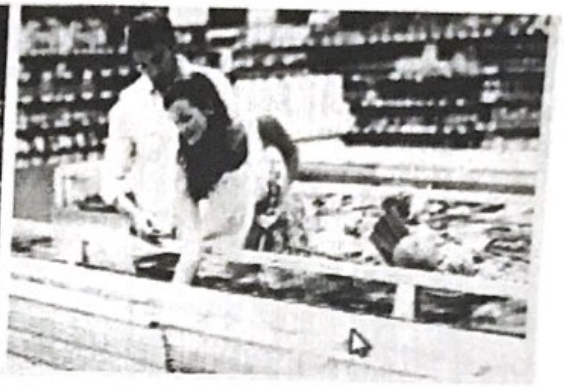

There are many kinds of food that are not good for our health. Fast food, for example is not good for our health. Sweets are not good for our health, like chocolate and candies. Soft drinks are not good for our health. These foods will give you many health problems including obesity, diabetes, heart disease and they cause cavities. We should eat healthy food.

What should we do to keep healthy?

There are many things we can do to keep healthy. We can eat healthy food and do some regular exercise, we should go to the doctor every 6 months for a checkup, sleep 8 hours a night, drink a lot of water and sit in the sun sometimes in the morning.

Task 3

Tell me what you see in the two pictures.

In the first picture I can see an old man working at the cashier. I think he's very tired. He's standing all day. He's waiting for the customers. He's very bored. It's a local market. I think the cashier system is old.
In the second picture I can see a couple. They are at a modern supermarket. They are buying something cold. Maybe it's meat like chicken or fish, or cold vegetables. They are wearing white clothing. They look happy.

What sort of people shop in these two places?

In the first place I think older people shop here. They come here to buy traditional spices. They know the man who works here, so they like coming to the small shop and talking with the old man. The old man is friendly.

In the second place I think more families shop here. They go to the supermarket because they can buy many things at one time. They can buy food and they can buy things for the home.

Which of these two places would you prefer to shop in? Why?

I would prefer to shop in the second place. At the supermarket I can buy many things. I can buy food, things for the home or beauty products. I don't want to shop at the first place because it's too small. Maybe they don't have what I want to buy.
I go shopping at different supermarkets to find different prices.

Task 4

Tell me about a time when you moved house.

How did you feel?

What can people do to ease the task of moving house?

When I got married I moved to live with my husband. I was a little afraid because it was a new experience. It was also very tiring because I had many boxes but people were helping me. My housekeeper helped me.
I think people who are moving house should prepare before they move. It takes a long time to pack everything and move. It's not an easy task. I don't moving house.
