Thư formal

Dear Sir
My name is Hien. I am a student at NEU. I have read your advertisement about house renting on the website. I am writing this email to ask for more information about the house.

HẢI TIẾN

First, I wonder how much money I should pay a month. Because I have a limited budget (ngân sách hạn chế), we would like to rent an affordable house.

Next, I would like to ask if your house is near a market or supermarket. I would be grateful if you could (tôi sẽ rất biết ơn nếu bạn có thể) send me a photo of the house's interior (nội thất căn nhà).

I am available on Monday and Friday morning. I would love to set up an appointment to see the property.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon if my request is acceptable.

Best regards

According to the news, from next time, the club will no longer provide one free book per month. And because of the problem with delivery service, members must wait 4-6 weeks before our orders arrive.

To be honest, I feel discontented because as a student like most members of the club. We do not have much money to buy books every month

Therefore, I think you should provide complementary (= free) book every 2 months. Another suggestion is that you should change to a more reliable / reputable delivery company
đáng tin cậy / uy tín hơn

I look forward to your prompt reply.

Yours sincerely.

Dear Mr Nhi

I am Hien - I have been a member in your club since last month. I am writing this email to express my disappointment regarding the recent change of the meeting with Mr. Daud Price and suggest a few alternatives. According to the news, he will not be able to attend next club meeting. Although Mr. Price will not be there to sign copies of his new book Around the World in Eighty Ways, members of the club will buy a copy at the price of twenty-five pounds (copy)

Honestly, I am really sad and disapponted to hear the news because many members have been waiting for this event for months and now this happen (lý do)

Therefore, I recommend you should reschedule the meeting so that Mr. Price could come and join us. Another option is to reduce the book's price.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon if my request is acceptable

Part 2:

Please write some reasons why you are interested in computers. (20- 30 words)

Computers are invaluable resource to help me explore the world around. I use the Internet to satisfy my curiosity and I am actually becoming more independent in my study.

Part 3.

In a computer club chat room.

a. What do you use your computer for?

Well, I utilize my computer to download and store a huge collection of E-books, movies and programs on my school subjects. It's a really wonderful machine, not to say a magical one.

b. Can you remember the first computer you used? What was it like?

To tell the truth, my first computer was stolen just in 3 days after I brought it to home. I couldn't remember much about it except it was one of the small black modern ASUSs.

c. What would you like to learn from computer club?

Oh, for me it's always rewarding to know how to restore a broken unit in my laptop. Apart from that, the computer club offers a friendly atmosphere for learning and exchanging information and ideas.

Part 4: Computer Club

You are a member of a computer club. You received this e-mail from the club:

Dear Member,

We are writing tell you that the famous expert, Ms Tasmeen Mohammed will unfortunately not be able to give a talk at our next club meeting club due to personal reasons. She has requested we reschedule the talk for next year in either January or March. Please contact the club secretary if you have a preference for one of the two months. Our meeting will take place as usual with a discussion on the advantages and disadvantages of learning on the Internet.

Write an e-mail to your friend. Write about your feelings and what you are planning to do. Write about 50 wors. You have 10 minutes.

Hey Sally,

Did you get the email from the club about the delay of our next club meeting due to Ms Tasmeen's absence? Oh, I'm over the moon! You know, we're terribly busy with a ton of our class exercise. Anyway, we should join the next discussion in either Jan or March.

Love,

Linda

Write an e-mail to the secretary of the club. Write about your feelings and what would you like to do. Write 120 – 150 words. You have 20 minutes.

Dear Sir/ Madam,

My name is Linda Bria Lemire and I have been a computer club member since 2010. I am writing this email to express my deepest disappointment regarding the cancellation of the following club appointment due to the absence of Ms Tasmeen Mohammed.
As I informed my regular schedule with you before, I would have to go on my business in Taiwan from January to May in the following year. Therefore, I will not participate in any club appointment among these months.
Furthermore, you assured that our schedule would not change dramatically despite any circumstances.
It would be grateful if you could persuade Ms Tasmeen to attend to ensure our plan occurring as usual. If not, you should invite another famous computer expert instead of the former one.

I look forward to receiving your response if my recommendations are acceptable.

Yours faithfully,
Linda Bria Lemire
